

Sweet TREATS

Satisfy your loved one's sweet tooth with one of these gifts By Cindy Brzostowski

What's the holiday season without some delicious treats? They say the way to someone's heart is through their stomach, and if you're looking for gift ideas that will leave someone feeling the love in every bite, these sweets are sure to hit the spot.

FOLIEPOP'S

FoliePop's imaginative creations are as delightful to look at as they are to eat. Their signature namesake menu item consists of a pastry base that's filled with cream and then topped with a chocolate sphere, which has its own coulis filling. Extra fun comes in when you crack the sphere before digging in. Other gift-worthy options include a selection of jelly-filled tartelettes and signature cakes (one designed in the shape of Texas and another as a pair of juicy red lips). FoliePop's has an online ordering option for store pickup. foliepops.com | Signature cake, $6.99. FoliePop's boxes from $45. Assorted tartelettes (box of 36), $58

DELYSIA CHOCOLATIER CHOCOLATE TRUFFLES

For the chocoholic in your life, consider giving a box of chocolate truffles from Delysia Chocolatier. Located in Cedar Park, this award-winning chocolatier handcrafts its creations, which range from white to milk to dark chocolate. Decorated with Christmas and winter motifs, the holiday-themed boxes feature truffles with flavors that capture the season, such as candy cane, hot toddy, eggnog, and sticky toffee English pudding. The company offers curbside pickup at their shop as well as local delivery. delysia.com | Nine-piece Taste of Winter truffle collection, $34.95. 16-piece Winter Wonderland truffle collection, $55.95

COOKIE RICH

Austin-based Cookie Rich has its own spin on the classic cookie. The bite-sized treats look almost like mini-burgers with two domed cookies sandwiching a sweet filling. Flavor combinations range from chocolate chip cookies with dark fudge filling to toasted coconut cookies with salted caramel filling. Gluten-free varieties are also available. Cookie Rich offers local pickup and delivery and ships nationwide. getcookierich.com | Build-your-own four-pack, $15. Build-your-own dozen, $33

TINY PIES

Tiny Pies' artisanal pies—each one handmade and perfectly sized to hold in your hand—are sure to bring a smile to your recipient's face. Among the assorted flavors, the Texas Two Step (a pecan pie layered with a dark chocolate brownie) is especially delicious. Looking for something larger? While the company is famous for its adorably petite pies, they do offer "Not So Tiny Pies" as well. Tiny Pies has four locations around Greater Austin, including one in Westlake and a newly opened pop-up in Lakeway, and they do local deliveries as well as nationwide shipping. tinypies.com | Six-pack of tiny pies, $30.90. 12-pack box, $61.80
